

Delaware Valley Reading Association
Presents

“EXPRESS YOURSELF”

Have you ever gotten that one piece of work generated by a student that you wished could be published?

Well, here’s your chance!!!

Please send samples of

- poetry
- comic strips
- political cartoons
- the sky is the limit!!

Throughout the year, you may send your students’ work electronically (Microsoft Word format, please) to kar817@comcast.net. All work received will be viewed according to content, creativity & originality. Those selected will be displayed on the DVRA website (www.dvra.org) and possibly the DVRA newsletter.

Those students whose work is highlighted will be invited to a future DVRA meeting to be recognized.
