

KSLA Delaware Valley Presents

MURPH CRAWFORD MIDDLE SCHOOL CONFERENCE

Saturday, February 23, 2019

HELPING OUR RELUCTANT AND STRUGGLING WRITERS

FIND TOPICS TO WRITE ABOUT AND KEEP WRITING!

Lynne Dorfman will explore ways to help students believe in themselves as writers and develop their own writing identity. Strategies such as heart maps, hand maps, neighborhood maps, memory chains, interest and writing inventories, and making lists will be shared. Using mentor texts to lift the level of student writing and conferring with many by clipboard cruising will be explored with classroom video clips.

ABOUT LYNNE DORFMAN

- Author/co-author of numerous books related to writing instruction
- Thirty-eight years of experience, Upper Moreland School District
- Twenty-five years of experience in course work and presentation work
- Pennsylvania Writing & Literature Project, Literacy Codirector and Independent Consultant
- Arcadia University, Adjunct Professor
- Chester County Reading Association, Board Member
- Eta Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa, Board Member

Date

Saturday, February 23, 2019

Location

Abington Junior High School
2056 Susquehanna Road
Abington, PA 19001
(park and enter at the school's main entrance)

Agenda

8:30-9:00	Check In
9:00-11:30	Keynote Presentation: Dr. Lynne Dorfman
11:30 - 11:50	Question and Answer Session
11:50-12:00	Evaluations, Raffle, Closure

Follow KSLA on Twitter (@KeystoneReading)

REGISTRATION

Complete, detach, and return the form below by February 15, 2019.

Complete form below. Mail to:

Danielle Martinelli * 294 Sequoia Drive * Newtown, PA 18940

Conference Reservation Form

Your Name: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

(weather-related changes will be communicated via email)

___ KSLA Delaware Valley member      FREE

___ Non-member      $10.00

___ Student      FREE

Checks payable to KSLA Delaware Valley